WHO WE ARE

Dialogue. Partnership. Progress.

Global South International (GSI) connects people, institutions and ideas across the Global South and with partners around the world. Our purpose is to strengthen meaningful participation, encourage practical cooperation and help create pathways toward a more equitable and sustainable global future.

WHY CONNECTION MATTERS

Today's challenges cross borders.

Economic uncertainty, climate change, food insecurity, public health pressures and rapidly changing technology affect communities in different ways. Effective solutions require knowledge from the people closest to these challenges and stronger partnerships between regions and institutions.

We create space for perspectives that may be underrepresented in international conversations.

CONNECT

We connect governments, communities, researchers, businesses, civil society and the diaspora.

ACT

We encourage partnerships that turn dialogue into practical action and long-term development.
